All the Broken Pieces is a masterpiece of originality. Unlike anything I have read before, I enjoyed the story immensely. Review: All the Broken Pieces by Cindi Madsen | Xpresso Reads

Liv was broken because she couldn't remember her past and exactly what had happened to her. I liked the way the author let tantalizing little tidbits of memory be revealed and kept the reader interested in trying to figure her past out. The love interest, Spencer, was not as interesting or even likable at times. Teenage conflict all over the place.
